DAILY REPORT - FRIDAY, 22 JUNE 1951

BOFTIEND

1. The supply mission flown on the night of 19/20 June to the two-man team operating in the Kukes area saw reception fires at the third alternate drop zone. The covert airplane made five passes over the drop zone at 300/400 feet but did not release its cargo since the ground-to-air signals were garbled and the fire pattern was not laid out per instruction. The acting project chief and the intelligence officer, however, are both convinced that the efforts at reception were genuinely those of our team. In accordance with the pre-arranged schedule, the next effort to supply this team will take place in July.

2. [ ] has sent instructions to Heidelberg regarding the 16 Albanians now undergoing training at the covert school. It is planned to move this group to Greece on or about the 15th of July, prior to their infiltration into Albania.

3. [ ] who is scheduled to assume the duties of shore representative in Greece [ ] [ ] the JUANITA), is expected to reach [ ] on June 26.
